FISHERIES CONSERVATION ACT OF 2002

NOVEMBER 13, 2002.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. HOLLINGS, from the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H.R. 1989]

The Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, to which was referred the Act (H.R. 1989) to reauthorize various fishing conservation management programs, and for other purposes, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon with an amendment in the nature of a substitute and recommends that the Act (as amended) do pass.

PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of H.R. 1989, the Fisheries Conservation Act of 2002, is to reauthorize the Interjurisdictional Fisheries Act of 1986, the Anadromous Fisheries Conservation Act of 1965, the Atlantic Tunas Convention Act of 1975, and the Northwest Atlantic Fisheries Conservation Act of 1995, through fiscal year (FY) 2006, and to make technical changes to the Oceans Act of 2000.

BACKGROUND AND NEEDS

This legislation would reauthorize, through FY 2006, four existing Acts dealing with the preservation and enhancement of various fish species. In addition, the legislation would adjust specific deadlines relating to the activities of the United States Commission on Ocean Policy.

The Interjurisdictional Fisheries Act and the Anadromous Fisheries Conservation Act provide grants to States to allow them to conduct research to help improve the way fisheries are managed, fund enforcement activities, rebuild habitat, and take other measures to improve the survival of fish species that travel across State boundaries or over great distances. The authorizations for these Acts expired in FY 2000. H.R. 1989, as reported by the Committee, would authorize appropriations through FY 2006.

The Atlantic Tunas Convention Act and the Northwest Atlantic Fisheries Convention Act implement international treaties to which the United States is a party. The Atlantic Tunas Convention Act allows the United States to implement conservation recommendations by the International Commission for the Conservation of Atlantic Tunas, while the Northwest Atlantic Fisheries Convention Act allows the United States to implement recommendations of the Northwest Atlantic Fisheries Organization. Authorizations for these Acts expired in FY 2001. H.R. 1989, as reported by the Committee, would authorize appropriations through FY 2006.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

H.R. 1989 was reported by the House of Representatives Committee on Resources on September 12, 2001, and passed by the House of Representatives on December 11, 2001. It was received in the Senate on December 12, 2001, and referred to the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation. An amendment in the nature of a substitute was agreed to at the executive session of the Committee on September 19, 2002. The Act was ordered to be reported as amended.

ESTIMATED COSTS

In accordance with paragraph 11(a) of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate and section 403 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee provides the following cost estimate, prepared by the Congressional Budget Office:

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, October 3, 2002.

Hon. ERNEST F. HOLLINGS,
Chairman, Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for H.R. 1989, the Fisheries Conservation Act of 2002.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contacts are Deborah Reis (for federal costs) and Marjorie Miller (for the state and local impact).

Sincerely,

BARRY B. ANDERSON
(For Dan L. Crippen, Director).

Enclosure.

H.R. 1989—Fisheries Conservation Act of 2002

Summary: H.R. 1989 would reauthorize appropriations for programs carried out by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) under five fisheries statutes. These laws authorize various grant programs, studies, reports and operations of the National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS) of NOAA. Assuming appropriations of the authorized amounts for fiscal years 2003 through 2006, CBO estimates that implementing the act would cost $12 million in 2003 and $68 million over the 2003–2007 period. (An estimated $3 million would be spent after 2007). The act would not affect direct spending over revenues.

The legislation contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA) and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments. This act would reauthorize funding for programs that include grants to states and to multistate organizations.

Estimated Cost to the Federal Government: The estimated budgetary impact of H.R. 1989 is shown in the following table. The costs of this legislation fall within budget function 300 (natural resources and environment).

	By fiscal year, in millions of dollars—
	2003	2004	2005	2006	2007
CHANGES IN SPENDING SUBJECT TO APPROPRIATION
Selected NMFS Programs:
Authorization level ¹	18	17	18	18	0
Estimated outlays	12	15	17	18	6

¹ Approximately $14 million was appropriated for fiscal year 2002 for the NMFS programs authorized by H.R. 1989. A full-year appropriation for 2003 has not yet been enacted for these programs.

Basis of estimate: For this estimate, CBO assumes that the amounts authorized by the legislation will be appropriated for each of fiscal years 2003 through 2006 and that outlays will follow historical spending patterns for the authorized NMFS programs. The fiscal year 2003 authorization level includes $1.5 million for the Commission on Ocean Policy to complete its report, due at the end of fiscal year 2003. H.R. 1989 would raise the authorization level for that project from $6 million to $8.5 million, but appropriations to date already exceed the existing authorization level by $1 million, making the act's net additional authorization $1.5 million.

Intergovernmental and private-sector impact: H.R. 1989 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in UMRA and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments. This legislation would reauthorize funding for programs that include grants to states and to multistate organizations.

Previous CBO estimate: On October 1, 2001, CBO transmitted a cost estimate for H.R. 1989 as ordered reported by the House Committee on Resources on September 12, 2001. CBO's cost estimates reflect the different provisions in these versions of the legislation.

Estimate prepared by: Federal costs: Deborah Reis; impact on state, local, and tribal governments: Susan Seig Tompkins; impact on the private sector: Lauren Marks.

Estimated approved by: Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

In accordance with paragraph 11(b) of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, the Committee provides the following evaluation of the regulatory impact of the legislation, as reported:

Because H.R. 1989 does not create any new programs, the legislation would have no additional regulatory impact and would not result in any additional reporting requirements. The legislation would have no further effect on the number or types of individuals and businesses regulated, the economic impact of such regulation, the personal privacy of affected individuals, or the paperwork required from such individuals and businesses.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS

TITLE I—INTERJURISDICTIONAL FISHERIES ACT OF 1986

Sec. 1. Short title

This section would provide that the short title of the Act is “The Fisheries Conservation Act of 2002”.

Section 101. Reauthorization of the Interjurisdictional Fisheries Act of 1986

This section would amend section 308 of the Interjurisdictional Fisheries Act by authorizing the grants to States through the Interjurisdictional Fisheries Act at $5.4 million for FY 2003 and FY 2004, and $5.9 million for FY 2005 and FY 2006. It also would amend section 308(c) to authorize increased funding for the Interstate Fisheries Commissions through the Interjurisdictional Fisheries Act at $850,000 for FY 2003 and FY 2004, and $900,000 for FY 2005 and FY 2006.

Section 102. Purposes of the Interjurisdictional Fisheries Act of 1986

This section would amend section 302 of the Interjurisdictional Fisheries Act of 1986 by adding language to promote and encourage research in the preparation and use of ecosystems and interspecies approaches for the conservation and management of interjurisdictional fishery resources throughout their range.

TITLE II—ANADROMOUS FISH CONSERVATION ACT

TITLE IV—NORTHWEST ATLANTIC FISHERIES CONVENTION ACT OF 1995

Section 401. Reauthorization of the Northwest Atlantic Fisheries Convention Act of 1995

This section would amend section 211 of the Northwest Atlantic Fisheries Convention Act by extending the authorization through FY 2006.

TITLE V—EXTENSION OF DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION OF OCEAN
POLICY REPORT*Section 501. Extension of deadline*

This section would amend section (3)(i) of the Oceans Act of 2000 by increasing the number of days that the Commission will exist after the submission of the final report from 30 days to 90 days; and amend section (4)(a) of the Act by decreasing the number of days that the President has to submit his recommendations to Congress following the receipt of the report from 120 days to 90 days. Additionally, the Act would amend section 3(j) of the Oceans Act, which provides an appropriation for the 3-year time frame covering fiscal years 2001–2003, by increasing the authorization of appropriations from $6 million to $8.5 million. This increase of $2.5 million would fund remaining activities in FY 2003.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW

In compliance with paragraph 12 of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, changes in existing law made by the bill, as reported, are shown as follows (existing law proposed to be omitted is enclosed in black brackets, new material is printed in italic, existing law in which no change is proposed is shown in roman):

ANADROMOUS FISH CONSERVATION ACT

FIRST SECTION

[16 U.S.C. 757a]

Such agreements shall describe (1) the actions to be taken by the Secretary and the cooperating parties, (2) the benefits that are expected to be derived by the States and other non-Federal interests, (3) the estimated cost of these actions, (4) the share of such costs to be borne by the Federal Government and by the States and other non-Federal interests: Provided, That, except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the Federal share, including the operation and maintenance costs of any facilities constructed by the Secretary pursuant to this Act, which he annually determines to be a proper Federal cost, shall not exceed 50 per centum of such costs exclusive of the value of any Federal land involved: Provided further, That the non-Federal share may be in the form of real or personal property, the value of which will be determined by the Secretary, as well as money, (5) the term of the agreement, (6) the terms and conditions for disposing of any real or personal property acquired by the Secretary during or at the end of the term of the agreement, and (7) such other terms and conditions as he deems desirable.

(b)(1) The Secretary may also enter into agreements with the States for the operation of any fiscal and management and administration of any lands or interests therein acquired or facilities constructed pursuant to this Act.

(2) In carrying out responsibilities under this section, the Secretary shall conduct, promote, and encourage research in preparation for the implementation of the use of ecosystems and interspecies approaches to the conservation and management of anadromous and Great Lakes fishery resources.

(c) INCREASE OF FEDERAL SHARE.—

(1) Whenever two or more States having a common interest in any basin jointly enter into a cooperative agreement with the Secretary under subsection (a) of this section to carry out a research and development program to conserve, develop, and enhance anadromous fishery resources of the Nation, or fish in the Great Lakes and Lake Champlain that ascend streams to spawn, the Federal share of the program costs shall be increased to a maximum of 66⅔ per centum.

(2) In the case of any State that has implemented an interstate fisheries management plan for anadromous fishery resources, prepared by an interstate commission the Federal share of any grant made under this section to carry out activities required by such plan shall be up to 90 percent. For purposes of this paragraph, the term “interstate commission” means—

(A) the commission established by the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Compact (as consented to and approved by Public Law 80–77), approved May 4, 1942 (56 Stat. 267);

(B) the commission established by the Pacific Marine Fisheries Compact (as consented to and approved by Public Law 80–232), approved July 24, 1947 (16 Stat. 419); and
